

Kibbee Death Reported

Word has been received here of the death of Milton Kibbee, stage and movie actor who was associated with El Paso community theater in the 1950's. He died April 17 in Simi Valley, Calif.

Mr. Kibbee, brother of the late Guy Kibbee, also a famous character actor, was born in Roswell, N.M. Their father, James, worked on El Paso newspapers for 65 years and was editor of a Las Cruces, N.M., newspaper.

Milton Kibbee had been in show business for 50 years, doing many shows on Broadway and about 50 movies, prior to his retirement. He then returned to El Paso where he, his wife and their daughter, Lois, were active in local facets of show business.

He is survived by his widow and his daughter, Lois, who resides in New York; another daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Zonn of Simi Valley; two sons, James, of New Orleans, and Milne Kibbee of Torrance, Calif.; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery in Chatsworth, Calif.
