

Former El Pasoan Dies At San Diego

Mrs. Ochiltree Kneeland, pioneer El Pasoan, died in San Diego yesterday, her El Paso friends were notified by members of the family yesterday. Mrs. Kneeland was the widow of the late William Kneeland, captain in the Confederate army and well known in El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. Kneeland moved to El Paso in 1880.

Friends were advised yesterday Mrs. Kneeland's body will be returned to El Paso for burial in the family plot. Funeral services probably will be held Wednesday. Mrs. Kneeland is survived by three daughters and two sons.
