
Gov. Larrazolo's Daughter Dies

Albuquerque, N. M., April 14 (AP).
—Miss Maria Larrazolo, 26, only daughter of the late Governor O. A. Larrazolo, died at her home here today following several months' illness.

Miss Larrazolo was also secretary to her father at the time he was United States senator from New Mexico.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Maria Larrazolo and five brothers. Funeral services will be held here Saturday morning and she will be buried beside her father in the family plot here.
