

Isaac Loewenstein Funeral Services at 9:30 a. m. Today

Isaac Loewenstein, 48, died at his home in Ysleta Saturday morning. He is survived by his wife and two children, Emmelia and Isaac, Jr., also by his mother and father, Don Moritz Loewenstein, a pioneer resident of Ysleta. His brothers are M. J. B. Loewenstein of Mexico City; George of Chihuahua; Gustav of Los Angeles; James, Joseph, Julius and William of Ysleta; sisters, Mrs. Emma L. Poix, Mrs. J. M. Walbridge and Mrs. W. B. Glardon, Jr., of Ysleta.

Mr. Loewenstein lived the greater part of his life in Ysleta, where he was engaged in the mercantile business. He also served the district and county commissioner at one time.

Funeral services will be held at the old Mission in Ysleta at 9:30 a. m. today. Interment in Evergreen cemetery. Active pallbearers are G. B. Cathay, S. S. Carpenter, Antonio Apodaca, Geo. Huffman, Frank Alderete and F. W. Whitney. Honorary pallbearers are J. J. Smith, J. W. Hubank, A. J. Martin, Abe Alderete, Ed Bryant and George Pendell.