
Julius Loewenstein

Taken by Death

Julius Loewenstein, lifelong resident of Ysleta, died late yesterday. He was 65. He had carried mail from the post office to the Ysleta railroad station for the past 10 years. His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Loewenstein, had lived in Ysleta 60 years.

He is survived by his wife of Ysleta; two sons, Julius Jr. and Robert Loewenstein, both of Ysleta; four brothers, Joseph and William Loewenstein, of Ysleta, Gustaf Loewenstein of El Paso, and George Loewenstein of Chihuahua; three sisters, Mrs. Emma Foix and Mrs. J. L. Crismon, both of Ysleta, and Mrs. J. W. Walbridge of Sierra Blanca.

Funeral arrangements are pending with the Kaster and Maxon Funeral Home.
