

Miss Logan Dead.

Miss Carrie L. Logan, aged 59 years and 4 months, aunt of J. T. Logan, general traffic agent of the Sierra Madre railway, and J. L. Logan, agent of the Pacific Express Co. in this city, died suddenly this morning of heart failure at the residence of the latter on Oregon street.

The remains will be shipped to Mansfield, La., for interment via the T. & P. tomorrow afternoon by Undertaker Nagley. Funeral services will be held at the Logan residence 901 North Oregon street at 1:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.