

FORMER EL PASOAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Word was received here yesterday of the death in Los Angeles of Mrs. Alice Cuniffe Lohman, 66, for many years a resident of El Paso and Las Cruces. She is survived by three sons, Oliver, Los Angeles; Martin, Benson, Ariz., and Oscar, St. Louis; two daughters, Mrs. Joe Amador, El Paso, who was enroute to her mother's bedside at the time of death, and Mrs. William Pot of Silver City, N. M., and three sisters, Mrs. C. O. Bennett, Mrs. D. V. Peacock, and Miss Mary Cuniffe, all of Las Cruces.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is thought the body will be brought to Las Cruces for burial.
