MRS. GEORGE LOOK DIES;
BEDRIDDEN FOR PAST YEAR

Mrs. George Look, widow of the late George Look, pioneer realty owner and politician, died at her home, 1813 East Boulevard, Monday at 1 o'clock, after being bedridden for more than a year by an accident in getting off a street car in Chicago. She was a native of El Paso, according to friends. Funeral arrangements will be completed today and tomorrow.

Mrs. Look leaves two sons, George, in this city, and Park, in the coast artillery at Boston, Mass., and a daughter, Mrs. R. E. Lowenfield, wife of a captain in a bakery company, en route to France. Mrs. Lowenfield was here at her mother's death.

Mrs. Look's mother, a Mrs. Parker, is said to be the oldest living resident of El Paso, 87 years of age, and living here 67 years.
