

Mrs. Fred Martin, Well Known Here, Dies In California

News of the death of Mrs. Fred Martin, of Hollywood, Calif., has been received by Mrs. James Vance, long time friend of the family.

The death of Mrs. Martin took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Martin residence, 8305 Fountain avenue, Hollywood, after illness of only two hours.

The funeral will be held Wednesday and interment will be in Forest Lawn cemetery, Glendale.

Mrs. Martin was formerly Mrs. J. Hepburn Russell of El Paso.

She built several houses during her residence here, the last one having been the first house in Sunset Heights at 525 Los Angeles street, now owned by Gustave Zork.

The late Mr. Russell was an official of the State National bank and relative of the Morehead family. The only son of Mrs. Martin, Gist Russell, died in his early 20's in Boston several years ago.

Mrs. Martin and her family were prominently identified with social, civic and business interests of El Paso and she has many friends here to mourn her death.
