

Felix Martinez Dies In Raton

Son of Pioneer El Pasoan To Be Buried In Trin-
chera, N. M.

Felix Martinez, Jr., 49, a son of a pioneer El Paso resident, died yesterday at his home in Raton, New Mexico. A former rancher, Mr. Martinez had been an invalid for several years.

The funeral has been set tentatively for Thursday afternoon. Burial will be at Trinchera, New Mexico, on the Colorado line.

His mother, Mrs. Virginia Martinez, 1209 Cincinnati street, has been a life-long resident of El Paso.

Surviving are: the widow, Mary C. of Raton; seven daughters, Mrs. Virginia Karras, Santa Fe, N. M.; Mrs. T. Michero, El Paso, Madeline, Dolores, Flora, Thelma and Mary Martinez, of Raton; his mother, a brother, Alfonso M. Martinez, 3027 Federal street, El Paso; three sisters, Mrs. C. P. Henry and Miss Virginia Martinez, 1209 Cincinnati street, El Paso, and Mrs. M. P. Hernandez, La Mesa, N. M.