

Mrs. W. M. McCoy Dies in Oakland

Mrs. W. M. McCoy, for 25 years owner of the Hotel McCoy, died recently in Oakland, Calif. She had been a resident of El Paso for 45 years. She was born here and attended school in El Paso and Las Cruces. Her father, John Dougher, was owner of the Grand Central Hotel, first large hotel in El Paso. She is survived by a son, J. O. McCoy of Oakland, Calif., and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. B. McCoy, El Paso. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Mrs. McCoy To Be Buried Here Monday

Funeral mass for Mrs. Susie Ann McCoy, former El Paso resident who died Monday in Oakland, Calif., will be held at 9 a. m. Saturday in the Immaculate Conception Church with the Rev. Richard T. Gaul officiating.

A native of Missouri, Mrs. McCoy came to El Paso as a child and attended schools here and Loretto convent in Las Cruces, N. M. Her father, John Dougher, owned the Grand Central Hotel, first large hotel in El Paso. Her husband, the late W. M. McCoy, built and operated the Hotel McCoy until his death several years ago.

Mrs. McCoy was an El Paso resident for 45 years. She had moved to Oakland several years ago. Her son, J. O. McCoy, will accompany her body to El Paso on Friday.

Other survivors include a daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. B. McCoy, El Paso.

Burial will be in the family plot in Concordia Cemetery under the direction of Hagedorn-Harding and Orr Funeral Home.

SUSIE ANN DOUGHER McCOY
Daughter of John and Annie Dougher

EL PASO HERALD
10 - 13 - 48

EL PASO TIMES
10 - 15 - 48

(d.o.d. 10 - 11 - 48)