

Sudden Death.

Mr. James H. McDermott, one of the best known young men of the city, died suddenly this morning at his residence, from heart failure. The news was a shock to his friends, and regrets were expressed on all sides. James was a popular member of the Hook and Ladder Company, and has been a resident of El Paso for about eight years. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. He was kind hearted, of simple nature and his familiar form and face will be missed. The fire department will attend his funeral in a body this morning which will take place from the city hall at 9:30 o'clock.
