

Miss Lena McKie Taken by Death

Miss Lena McKie of 720 North Florence street, teacher at El Paso High School until her retirement two years ago, died in a hospital today.

Miss McKie was 77. Born in Water Valley, Miss., she came to El Paso with her family in 1887.

—Survivors are her sister, Mrs. B. M. G. Williams and a brother C. G. McKie of El Paso; three nieces, Miss Janet McKie of El Paso, Miss Dorothy Manners Williams of Berkeley, Cal., and Mrs. Vernon Nichols of Canton, Miss.; three nephews, Donald McKie of El Paso, Cheatham McKie of Jackson, Miss., and Major Burton McKie with the Army overseas.

Funeral services will be at 10 a. m. tomorrow in Barry Hagedorn Chapel with Rev. B. M. G. Williams officiating. Pallbearers will be A. H. Hugsey, Lynn Davis, Kenneth MacCallum, Roy L. Davis, Austin Stephens and Colbert Coldwell. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.