

MRS. LYDIA M'NAIR TAKEN BY DEATH

The body of Mrs. Lydia Maude McNair of 4311 Chester street, who died yesterday, will be sent to Las Vegas, N. M., Saturday night for burial. She was 80.

Mrs. McNair was a member of a pioneer family of El Paso and the Southwest. She was a passenger on the first train that entered Las Vegas. She was the widow of Thomas B. McNair, pioneer wholesale grocer and a sister of Cecil W. Browne, former president of the Chamber of Commerce.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. D. Reynolds and Mrs. Hallett Reynolds, both of El Paso; four grandchildren, Richard Reynolds of Flagstaff, Ariz., Edward Reynolds of London, England, Thomas Reynolds of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. L. E. Wardway of El Paso; two sisters, Mrs. M. H. Norton and Miss Helen Brown; a brother, Kenneth L. Brown of Kansas City, Kans., and three grandchildren.