

MRS. G. MENGEL DIES SATURDAY

Wife of Dentist Passes Away After Being Invalid For Several Years.

Mrs. George H. Mengel, wife of Dr. George H. Mengel, died Saturday morning at 9:40 o'clock after an invalid life of several years. Death occurred at the family home, 3800 Westminster street.

Mrs. Mengel is survived by her husband, two children, Helen, aged 10, and Sherod, aged 13 years; two sisters, Mrs. I. N. Winans of El Paso, and Mrs. D. A. Morris, of Galveston; a brother, M. Sherod, of Del Rio, and a father, H. N. Sherod, of Galion, Ohio.

Mrs. Mengel's maiden name was Miss Cora Estell Sherod and her marriage to Dr. Mengel occurred in 1901. They went to Bucyrus, Ohio, where Dr. Mengel practiced dentistry until he moved to El Paso ten years ago. Mrs. Mengel was for a number of years a member of the choir of St. Clement's Episcopal church and an active worker in that church.

No funeral arrangements will be made until a number of the relatives who have been notified, arrive.
