An Old Resident Gone.

J. P. Miller, an old and respected resident of this city, died at his residence on the corner of Myrtle and Stanton streets this morning at 1:30. Mr. Miller was a native of Indiana and has been thirty years in this section, and was 73 years old. He belonged to the Masonic order but not to the El Paso Lodge. He was a member of the Trinity M. E. church, and services took place at his residence this afternoon, after which he was buried in Concordia. He was formerly a cabinet maker, but has followed the gunsmith business for the last seven years. He leaves one daughter in this city.
