

Mrs. Mary Morehead, Pioneer, Dies At 80

Mrs. Mary Gates Morehead, widow of Charles R. Morehead, pioneer city builder, died today in a hospital. She was 80.

Mr. Morehead died in 1921 after years of leadership in El Paso civic life. He was a former Mayor of El Paso. Morehead School, completed while he was Mayor, was named for him.

Mrs. Morehead in her younger years was a teacher and leader in El Paso schools.

Survivors are a niece, Mrs. James Alfonte of Washington, D. C.; two nephews, Oscar G. Redmond of Iona, Cal., and Richard Redmond of El Paso.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Kaster and Maxon Mortuary.

Mrs. Morehead's residence had been at the Doniphan Hotel on Montana street.
