

MULLIN

Phyllis Mullin, 87, a longtime resident of El Paso, passed away on Tuesday, January 25. The fifth of eight children, she was born March 19, 1923, in Peru, Indiana. She served as an air traffic control operator in the Navy during WWII, and as a member of the choir during naval training, sang on the Perry Como show to honor Franklin Roosevelt the night he died. She met her husband, Hugh P. Mullin, going to college on the G.I. bill. She enjoyed traveling around the world as army wife and mother. An avid reader and crossword puzzle solver, during the past several years she had become an ardent supporter of El Paso Kids-N-Do. And the U.S. Olympic team. Preceded in death by her husband and her son Terrence

Paul, she is survived by son Kevin P. Mullin, son Michael W. Mullin and his wife, Judi, and their three children, and daughter Patricia Kay Clark and her dear friend and sister-in-law, Vera Ray. Graveside services will be held 2:00 p.m. Monday January 31, 2011 at Fort Bliss National Cemetery. Funeral Arrangements under the direction of Funeraria Del Angel Martin Central.
