
DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

W. M. Myers.

W. M. Myers, a negro who has resided in El Paso the past twenty-eight years, was found dead in his bed yesterday afternoon in his room adjoining the colored church on Utah street. Justice Spencer rendered a verdict of death from natural causes. At the time of his death Myers was 56 years of age. He was a well known figure on the streets of the city and worked at odd jobs about town.

At the time of his death Myers had a boot black stand on San Antonio street, where he was apparently making a good living. He was a member of the local order of I. O. O. F., colored.

The remains of Meyers will be buried next Sunday afternoon in Concordia, under the auspices of the colored I. O. O. F.
