Illness Contracted During Hunting Expedition Proves Fatal.

Illness contracted during a hunting expedition last Labor day resulted in the death yesterday of Omered H. "Bill" Palm, Jr., 24, a resident of the lower valley.

Young Palm died from heart disease and associated complications, doctors said. He had been critically ill for several months and doctors and relatives held little hope of his recovery.

He came to El Paso with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Palm, from Rockdale, Texas, 22 years ago. He was reared and educated in El Paso and was graduated from El Paso high school in 1927. After leaving school he became associated with his father in the Palm Seed company.

Mr. Palm was a popular member of El Paso's social set. He was a member of the S. D. U. club.

He is survived by his parents and two brothers, Robert and John Palm.

Funeral services will be held at the Peak-Hagedorn chapel at 2:30 p. m. today, with the Rev. C. H. Horner officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Johnny Grant, Van Wilson, Louis Railston, Robert Ramey, Lawrence Warren and Jerome Owen.
