

BODY OF MRS. PATTERSON NOW RESTS IN THE GRAVE

Funeral Services Held at Trinity Methodist Church Yesterday.

The funeral services of Mrs. Lydia Patterson at Trinity Methodist church yesterday afternoon were attended by hundreds of the friends of the deceased. The hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour" was rendered with sympathetic effect by a splendid choir. Rev. H. B. Robeson, pastor of the First Christian church, read from St. Matthew Christ's words to his disciples: "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me." At the conclusion of the prayer following the reading the choir sang, "Asleep in Jesus."

Rev. Mr. Sutherland paid an eloquent tribute to Mrs. Patterson's nobility of character and simple and child-like trust in the promises of Christ.

The pallbearers were A. P. Coles, J. H. Pollard, I. A. Shedd, J. N. Hughes, J. H. Harper, Fred Schaefer, E. W. Mead and Frank Coles.

The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings and a carriage loaded with beautiful flowers for the grave followed the procession to the cemetery.

The deceased was the wife of Millard Patterson and a sister of Judge J. A. Buckler of this city. She was married in Kentucky to Samuel D. Ball, and moved to Sherman, Texas, with him in 1872. Mr. Ball died in Sherman and in 1883 the deceased came to El Paso, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Zuclina Ball, now Mrs. J. H. Harper.

In November, 1886, the deceased married Millard Patterson. She leaves two brothers living in Kentucky, J. A. Buckler, of this city, her husband, Millard Patterson, and her daughter, Mrs. Harper as the only survivor of her immediate family.

+