

Terah Patterson, Old Resident, Dies

Terah Haggin Patterson, 76, died of pneumonia and heart disease yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock at the family residence, 3117 Richmond street.

Mr. Patterson, whose birthplace was Paynes Depot, Ky., had been a resident of El Paso for 20 years.

He was an elder in the First Christian church.

Mr. Patterson was graduated from Yale university in 1881, and also took a post graduate law course.

He retired from active business several years ago.

Besides his widow, niece of Col. Ben Milam, of Texas history fame, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John I. Peterson, Mrs. Robert Oliver, of El Paso; Mrs. John M. McKean, Boulder City, Nevada; two sons, Robert M. Patterson, of El Paso; Colvin B. Patterson, of Glendale, Calif., all of whom were present at the time of his death.

Funeral services will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at Restlawn cemetery, where interment will take place.

The Rev. Arthur A. Hyde, of the First Christian church, will conduct the services, and pall bearers will be O. A. Richeson, A. R. Woodley, Charles Price, C. B. Woodul, R. B. King, and John Linebaugh.

The family asks that no flowers be sent.
