

Last Survivor Of First Consul To Juarez Dies

Special to EL PASO TIMES

Las Cruces, N. M.—Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Monday, from St. Genevieve's Church, for Mrs. Clara Caniffe Peacock, 59, last survivor of Henry J. Caniffe, first U. S. Consul on El Paso-Juarez border.

Mrs. Peacock died Friday after a long illness. She had been a resident of Las Cruces for 10 years.

Her father was appointed U. S. consul in 1860. He was a personal friend of Benito Juarez and Cap Anson, pioneer El Pasoan, and helped in the overthrow of Maximilian. He was the first postmaster of Las Cruces, assuming the post in 1870.

Surviving Mrs. Peacock are five sons and a daughter, Carl Peacock, Los Angeles; F. J. Peacock, La Lima, British Honduras; D. V. Peacock, Oak Park, Ill.; George Peacock, Anthony, N. M.; O. L. Peacock, El Paso; and Mrs. Charles Dallas, Anthony.

Rosary service will be held in St. Genevieve's at 7:30 a. m. Sunday. Funeral will be under the direction of Graham Mortuary.

EL PASO TIMES

11-2-47

(Correct spelling of family name is CUNIFFE)