

Death of Warner Phillips.

The death of Warner Phillips at his home in Ysleta removes one of the old time residents of this locality. Deceased came to this place about 20 years ago. He married a daughter of Benjamin Dowell and resided for many years in the city, on the old Dowell homestead, on El Paso street, where the Phillips' block now stands. When the building of the block was begun he moved with his family to Ysleta, where he has since resided. The remains will be buried at Concordia to-day.

TIMES 11-16-87