

DEATH OF WOMAN BLAMED ON FALL

Mrs. Elizabeth Pickrell Succumbs At Daughter's Home

Shock and injuries received in a fall caused the death Thursday of Mrs. Elizabeth Vincent Pickrell, former El Pasoan, at the home of her daughter in Los Angeles. Grover Pickrell, a grandson, was advised today. Mrs. Pickrell was 97.

She formerly owned the Elite Confectionery in El Paso and had lived here 40 years before going to Los Angeles. The body will be sent to El Paso for burial.

Survivors include Clarence Pickrell, Los Angeles, a son; Mrs. Caroline Bennett, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Louis Clark, Ennis, daughters; Grover and Frank Pickrell, El Paso, grandsons.
