

Frank Putnam Taken by Death

Frank Bishop Putnam of Hollywood, Calif., formerly of El Paso, died in Los Angeles Thursday.

Mr. Putnam was born in El Paso on Dec. 27, 1895. He was a member of several organizations here and was vice president and treasurer of the El Paso Historical Society before moving to California. He was a banker for 50 years.

Memorial services were held in the Holy Virgin Mary Russian Orthodox Church and Reed Bros. Tapley and Geiger Chapel. Burial was in Los Angeles.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Helen Marshall of Lake Arrowhead, Calif., Mrs. Edith P. Jorgensen of Santa Barbara, a brother, Henry C. Putnam of Boulder, Colo., a step-daughter, Mrs. Mara R. Macey of Troy, N. Y., and three step-grandchildren.