

SON OF CATTLEMAN SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

While attending a dance at the Island near Fabens, Saturday night, Tomposo Ray, son of Marcino Ray, a prominent cattleman of that section, was shot in the neck by a Mexican and seriously wounded.

The young man was brought to Providence hospital in El Paso, Sunday, where he was reported to be in a critical condition.

His assailant was arrested, it is said, soon after the shooting and is now being held at Fabens, awaiting the outcome of young Ray's wound.

YOUNG MAN SUCCUMBS TO GUNSHOT WOUND

Pomposo Rey, son of Marcelino Rey, a wealthy cattleman of Fabens, who was brought to a hospital here about 10 days ago, suffering from a gunshot wound, sustained, it is alleged, in an altercation on the Island, near Fabens, died Tuesday.

Espiridion Beltran and Jose Beltran, brothers, arrested after the shooting as the alleged assailants of Rey, who are in the county jail here, will now be arraigned on a murder charge, it is said.
