

Mining Engineer Dies in Waco

Oscar Carl Rheinheimer of 3121 Wheeling avenue died yesterday in Waco. He was 63, a native of El Paso and was a graduate of the Texas College of Mines. Mr. Rheinheimer had been a well known mining engineer in the southwest and Mexico. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rheinheimer, were pioneer settlers in El Paso.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Bess Rheinheimer of El Paso; two brothers, Dr. E. W. Rheinheimer and Nelson Rheinheimer of El Paso; and two sisters, Miss Frieda J. Rheinheimer of El Paso and Mrs. Helen Barrett of New York City.

Funeral services were pending at Kaster and Maxon.
