Died—At the residence of Joseph Magoffin, at 6:40 p. m. October 12, 1886, Mrs. Josephine Richardson, the beloved wife of Charles C. Richardson, of Paso del Norte, Mexico. The funeral services will take place at the residence of Joseph Magoffin at 9:30 o'clock on Thursday morning, October 14, 1886, and from thence will repair to the Catholic church where a requiem mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father Richard di Palma. Friends of the respective families are invited to attend.

Mrs. Richardson was the sister of Judge Magoffin, of this city. She was educated at the Convent of the Visitation, at St. Louis, Mo., at which place she was married to Charles C. Richardson, by Arch-Bishop Kendrick, in the year 1855. A few years later they moved to this part of the country and made their home in Paso del Norte. Mrs. Richardson was a cultured lady, possessing rare christian qualities, courteous and charitable to all. Her death, while expected, is a sorrowful blow to all who knew her.
