

Alva Richey.

Alva Richey, one of El Paso's most prosperous and energetic citizens died in this city last night at his residence at 314 South Stanton street of complications resulting from grip.

Mr. Richey came to El Paso about twelve years ago from Columbia, Mississippi, where he was born sixty years ago. Since being in El Paso the deceased has been in business and amassed quite a fortune. Two sons, R. W. and W. W. Richey, survive the deceased, Mrs. Richey having died about twenty-five years ago.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence of R. W. Richey, 806 Magoffin avenue, Rev. Dr. Ryland officiating. The remains will be prepared by Nagley & Carr and buried in the Masonic plot at Concordia.