
PIONEER DIES.

Marcelino Rivas, 70, pioneer El Pasoan, died at his tourist camp in the lower valley yesterday morning, following a long illness. Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. today at the Guardian Angel church, with the Rev. Fr. C. Palamo officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery. Rivas is survived by his widow, and two daughters, Mrs. Luis Weber, of El Paso, and Mrs. Maria Casares, of Los Angeles. Services will be in charge of Peak-Hagedon.
