

en-ria-vote

ary left rees

ES

Be ing ildthe eted.

FORMER RANCHER DIES

Word Received Here of Death of
J. P. Robertson

J. P. Robertson, 76, former El Pasoan, died at his home in Huntington Park, Calif., yesterday, friends were advised today.

Mr. Robertson was a pioneer cattleman in the southwest. He came to El Paso from Old Mexico. He left El Paso in 1924.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Etta Robertson; two daughters, Mrs. Jack Knight, Huntington Park, and Mrs. Nola Amos, Montgomery, Ala.; a sister, Mrs. Ella McGaabee, Alpine; and by two grandsons, Jack Knight, Jr., and Billy Amos.

AUDITORS FIND BOND

... then report what The ticket mediately.

M

Silver

Lv. Silver Cit
Lv. Deming .
Arr. El Paso

Lv. El Paso .
Lv. Deming .
Arr. Silver Cit
Via Ft. Baya

212 San Fr

Paris

Trade

OARS AND share exper
-MARTI

118 San Fr

TWO young r