
Mrs. Edward Rodgers, 81, Dies At Alton, Ill.

Mrs. Edward Rodgers, 81, wife of the founder of the El Paso brick company, died at the family residence at Alton, Ill., early Saturday morning. She had been ill several years.

E. H. Rodgers, president and manager of the company and son of Mrs. Rodgers, was with his mother when she died. He had been in Alton two weeks.

Mrs. Rodgers was well known in El Paso. She made her winter home here until her husband's death, in 1920, and had visited here frequently since.

Beside E. H. Rodgers, Mrs. Rodgers is survived by another son, Eben Rodgers, and a daughter, Hortense Rodgers.
