

---

The HERALD regrets to chronicle the death of little Arthur, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rokahr, who died yesterday afternoon. As reported in the HERALD yesterday, the little chap received injuries last Sunday while attempting to get in his mother's carriage that resulted in his sad death. The funeral took place this afternoon from the Episcopal church.