Widow of Pioneer Peace Officer
Dies in El Paso

Funeral services were pending today at Kaster & Maxon Chapel for Mrs. Maudie Baker Ross, pioneer resident of El Paso, who died yesterday in Hotel Dieu. She was 70.

She was the widow of the late Capt. Robert C. Ross, Texas Ranger, city police captain and deputy U. S. marshal in El Paso. They came to El Paso in 1887.

Mrs. Ross is survived by three daughters, Mrs. W. S. Dobie, Mrs. O. T. Ward, El Paso, and Mrs. Jesse Lochausen, Sanderson; and by two sons, James C. and Perry M. Ross, both of El Paso.
