

—On Sunday evening, July 26, Mrs. Chas. Rothschild, of this city, passed away in the sweet sleep that knows no awakning. Her illness was very short, having been upon the streets Saturday in apparently good health. Her husband was absent at the time of the sad happening, but was immediately telegraphed for. A sister of the deceased arrived by Saturday's train to spend a pleasant summer in El Paso. Little did she dream of her sad errond to the south. To the bereaved widower, child and sister THE LONE STAR joins the many friends in extending our sympathies.
