

PIONEER CLINT WOMAN, 78, DIES

Services for Mrs. Mary Louise Schairer, 78, pioneer resident of the lower valley, who died at her home Saturday, will be held at the chapel of Hartford mortuary at 10 a. m. Tuesday, Rev. Chas. Williams and Rev. J. F. Cole officiating. The body will be sent to Ann Harbor, Mich., for burial.

Pall bearers will be Judge F. E. Hunter, L. R. Thomson, R. G. Murphy, Dr. E. L. Byrd, Marcus Jungjohann and Joe Silvia.

Mrs. Schairer had lived with her husband on one ranch near Clint since April, 1885, when she came to El Paso from Michican. Three years ago they moved into Clint.

Besides her husband, J. J. Schairer, she is survived by the following nieces and nephews: Mrs. John Eubanks, Clint; Mrs. Herbert Gilman Milan, Mich.; O. A. Critchett, El Paso; J. C. Critchett, Julian, Cal.; J. F. Critchett, San Francisco; Lee Dansingburg, Portland, Ore.; Fred Dansingburg, Boston, Mass.