LT. SEAMON'S FATHER TO RECEIVE MEDAL THURSDAY

Distinguished service cross which posthumously was awarded to Lt. Alexander Rives Seamon 138th infantry for conspicuous bravery in action in the battle of the Argonne, will be presented to his father, Prof. W. H. Seamon, in judge E. B. McClintock's courtroom at 8 o'clock Thursday night. The presentation will be made by Maj. Gen. Robert L. Howze, who will be present with his staff. Davis-Seamon post, No. 812, Veterans of Foreign Wars, which was named for Lt. Seamon, will attend in a body and will hold its regular meeting in the hall in the basement of the courthouse after the presentation ceremonies.
