

DEATH TAKES WIDOW OF MINES PROFESSOR

Funeral of Mrs. W. H. Seamon To Be Held Wednesday

Mrs. Priscilla Coleman Seamon, 77, died early today at her home in the Wright apartments.

She was the widow of the late Prof. W. H. Seamon, for whom a building at the College of Mines was named.

Mrs. Seamon is survived by a son, W. H. Seamon, El Paso, and two daughters, Mrs. Anne Harding, New York City, and Mrs. H. C. Chalmers, Phoenix, Va.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday in St. Clements' Episcopal church with Rev. C. H. Horner officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen.