

PIONEER WOMAN DIES FROM FALL INJURIES

Rites Pending for Mrs. Mary Smith,
E. P. Resident 50 Years

Mrs. Mary Jane Smith, resident of El Paso for 50 years, died at her home yesterday at 727 N. Santa Fe St. from injuries received in a fall two weeks ago. She was 90.

Mrs. Smith came to El Paso from McArthur, Ohio in 1886. Her husband, the late J. I. Smith, was the first contractor in El Paso.

She is survived by two sons, Nelse and Firm; a daughter, Mrs. W. L. Peabody of Chicago. Funeral arrangements are pending with Peak-Hagedon Mortuary.
