

Mrs. Sally Smith's Funeral Rites Held

Funeral services were held today at the Kaster and Maxon Chapel for Mrs. Sally Homan Smith of 3100 Federal street who died yesterday in a hospital.

Mrs. Smith was 78 and had lived in El Paso for 36 years.

Mrs. Smith was librarian at Austin High School from 1925 until 1943. She organized the new building's library and became its first librarian.

Born in Cameron

She was born in Cameron on Sept. 3, 1873. She married the late Dr. Willis R. Smith in Dallas. Dr. Smith died here in 1923.

Mrs. Smith was the sister of the late Dr. R. B. Homan Sr.

She was an active worker in the First Christian Church.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James J. Gorman; three brothers, Dr. Ralph Homan, Dr. Carlton C. Homan, and W. V. Pete Homan; a grandson, James J. Gorman Jr.; three nephews, Dr. R. B. Homan Jr.; W. V. Homan Jr. and Carlton Homan Jr.; and two nieces, Virginia Beal and Catherine Homan.

Pallbearers Listed

Rev. D. W. McElroy officiated. Active pallbearers were Gerote Turner, Dr. J. Leighton Green, George G. Matkin, R. E. Crawford, Charles H. Price and Lynn B. Davis.

Honorary pallbearers were Dr. H. H. Varner, Dr. E. W. Rheinheimer, Dr. T. J. McCamant, Dr. Felix Miller, R. E. Ross and Herman Rosch.

Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.