

Captain Milton Spencer.

Captain Milton M. Spencer died this morning at 12:30 o'clock after a long and severe illness. Captain Spencer came to El Paso about a dozen years ago from Indiana, and has been engaged with his brother, David Spencer, in the business of contracting and building. He was a man of about 50 years of age, and when a very young man won distinction in the federal army during the late civil war. He was a member of Emmet Crawford Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and this organization will have charge of the funeral arrangements, which will be announced tomorrow morning.
