

A. C. STEPHENS.

A. C. Stephens, about 60 years of age, a pioneer builder of El Paso, died Monday morning at his home, 607 North Florence street, after an illness of some time.

Coming to El Paso about 33 years ago, decedent engaged in the general contracting business, being a member of the firm of Rattenbury, Davis and Stephens. He was a native of Chicago, where he was a contractor before coming to El Paso.

Funeral services will be arranged on the arrival of a niece, Miss Gladys Stephens, of Boston, Mass. A brother, also residing in Boston, will arrive in the city within the next few days.