

Died

At Cutler, Maine, March 21st, Moses B. Stevens, father of Horace B. and Charles B. Stevens, of this city, at the ripe age of 83 years. Mr. Stevens was engaged in active business up to the time of his death, having been in the lumbering and shipbuilding business for over

MOSES B. STEVENS.

50 years. He has been identified with politics in Eastern Maine since early manhood, but held but one office, that of collector of customs at his home. He was an intimate friend of the late James G. Blaine, and was held in high esteem by all for his sterling integrity and generosity.

The Messrs Stevens have the sympathy of the entire city in their deep loss.
