Died,

Norman C., oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Stevens, died at 10:30 last night of aggravated tonsillitis. Little Norman had just passed his third birthday and was looking forward with boyish hope to a visit to his grand parents. His sickness delayed the trip and after two weeks of suffering he gently passed over to "the beautiful land." The stricken parents in this hour of their sad bereavement, are entitled to, and have the tenderest of human sympathy. The interment was at Concordia this afternoon.
