

JOHN B. TAYS KILLED

One Of El Paso's Pioneers Loses His Life In British Guiana.

Particulars have been received at Ontario, California, of the tragic death of John B. Tays, formerly a resident of El Paso. A boat in which he was went over a cataract, and many others were lost. The body was recovered.

Mr. Tays was an old time El Pasoan. He was 59 years of age. His brother founded St. Clement's church. Mr. Tays was employed as an expert gold miner.

HERALD 6-19-00

[5-9^d.00]