

Mrs. Alice Solomon, Here Since '89, Dies

Mrs. Alice Solomon, a resident of El Paso since 1889, died today in her home at 1717 North Stanton street. She was 85.

Mrs. Solomon was widow of the late Nathan Solomon and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ullman.

She was a member of Temple Mt. Sina, one of the founders of Mt. Sinai Sisterhood, and a member of the Council of Jewish Women.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Sunday in the Harding Orr Chapel, Dr. Floyd Fierman officiating.

She is survived by a brother, Sidney Ullman of El Paso; three sisters, Mrs. Ben Levy, Mrs. A. H. Goldstein, both of El Paso, and Mrs. Eugene Fatman of Los Angeles.

Active pallbearers will be Karl Blumenthal, Henry Heil, Louis Kaufmann, Max Moye, Leon Kotosky and Ed Krohn.

Honorary pallbearers will be Lawrence Calisher, Maurice Schwartz, A. S. Jacobs, Rube Weinstein, Karl Goodman, Adolph Blumenthal and Sidney Mayer.

Burial will be in Mt. Sinai Cemetery.