
Died.

A. Von Balldow, who for several years conducted a merchant tailoring establishment on Overland street, died at 11 o'clock this morning. Mr. Von Balldow, who was 76 years of age, was a native of the State New York, and had resided in El Paso since 1887. He was a Confederate veteran, and during the war served under the command of General Sterling Price. He was one of the original members of John C. Brown camp, which organization will attend his funeral, to be held from his late residence tomorrow morning on East Overland street at 9:30 o'clock. A wife and five children survive him.
