

V. E. Ware, Contractor, Expires

V. E. Ware, former El Paso contractor who built the first building at the College of Mines, died Wednesday in Covington, Ky., where he had made his home since leaving El Paso five years ago.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, five brothers and a sister.

Since leaving El Paso he has been associated with his brothers in a stock farm.

Mr. Ware was a member of A. F. and A. M. Blue Lodge 130, El Paso Consistory No. 3, and El Malda Temple.

Funeral services will be held Saturday in Covington.

ters.

and kas

is in lding

e

o. Texas.

oye Bldg.
Building
l Bank
st Co.
try Club—

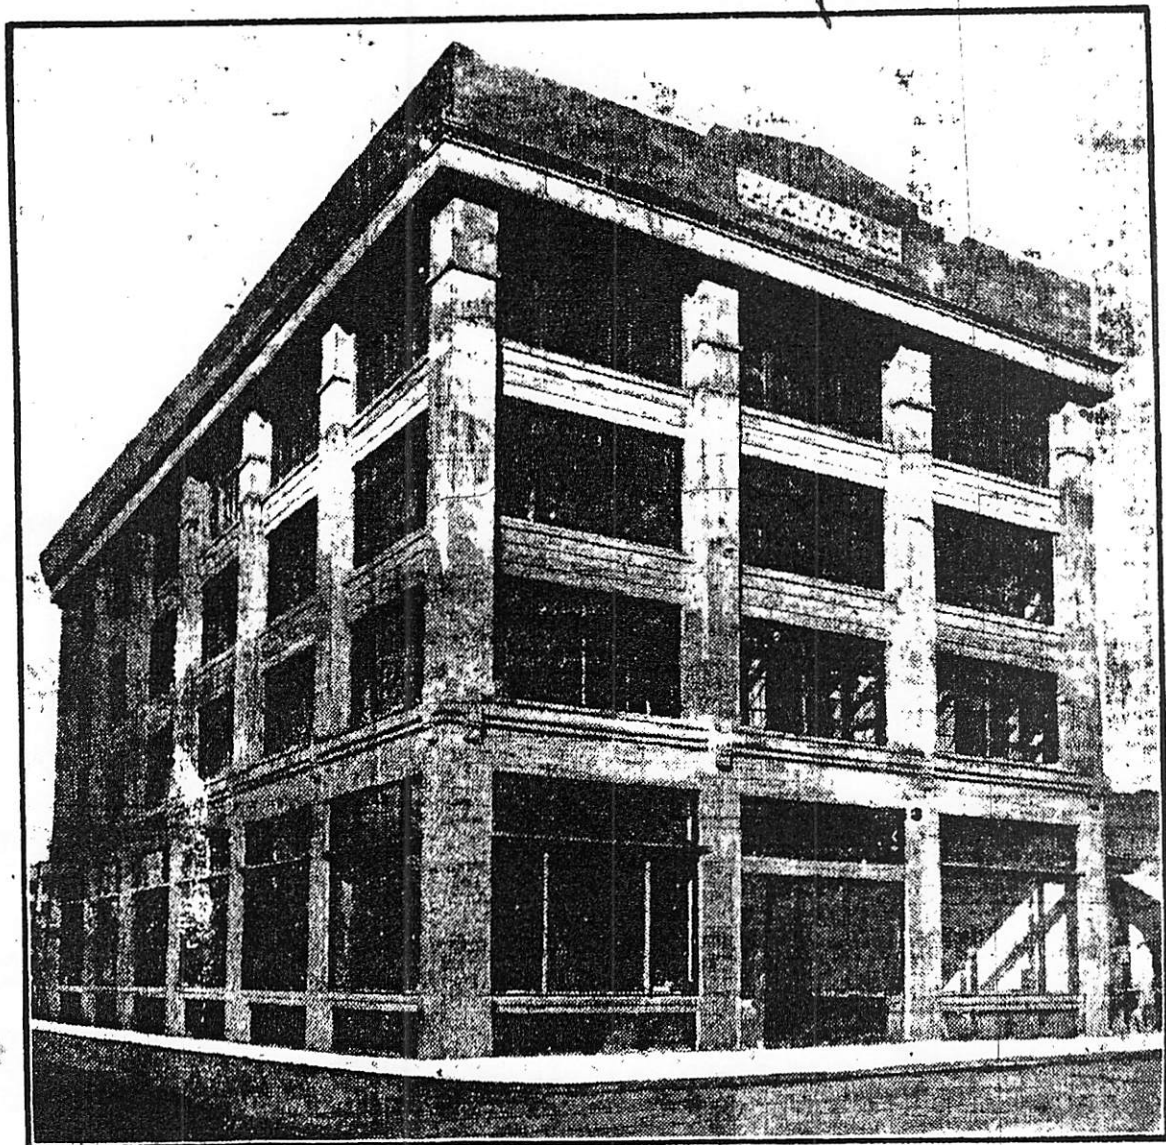

proposal.

EAPLY AS

ardware

Building

TROST & TROST, Architects.

The First Flat Slab
Re-inforced Concrete Building Built in El Paso

V. E. WARE
CONTRACTOR

Who

N

Elec

Lau

206

“W
M

412 E.

ARMON KRUPP BLDG / SANTA FE @ OVERLAND