

die to the Court if
A. Wheat
sion favor-12)

CORD
A. B. Apsil
ounced to-atic radio
e Novost-
tion, had
e than 26
made in-

eals
called the e toward
g women
Catholics
mass on fact, they
Immoral
to the welcomed
also.
Monday,
eek serv-
Church.
he guest

progressives, who sufficient strength to swing the vote, were voting two to one for Roosevelt against Borah.
Voting followed a similar trend
in the 10 congressional districts.
In the Republican district dele-
(Continued on Page 12)

EX-POLICE WOMAN TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Emma Webster Fenley Dies at Home in Lower Valley

Mrs. Emma Webster Fenley, former El Paso policewoman, died last night at midnight at her home in the lower Valley, Ascarate, after an illness of 90 days.

Mrs. Fenley was 60.
Mrs. Fenley was probation officer in El Paso County for 22 years.
She was born in Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 5, 1876.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 4 p. m. in Kaster and Maxon Mortuary with Rev. Wlster R. Smith officiating. Burial will be in Restlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Fenley is survived by her husband, Ivy R. Fenley; one daughter, Mrs. Gladys Linhan of Los Angeles and three sons, Sherman Webster of Los Angeles; Frank Webster, U. S. Navy, now in China; Joe Webster of El Paso.

COOGAN WINS SUIT

FABENS L Will Convince Office Re-Settlement

An attempt will be made to convince federal re-settlement officials that the land for the Fabens Project is not too high, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said today.

FEARS PORT
Edgar D. Park today was visiting the popular east slopes of Mt. Franklin the flowers by pulling them up for transplant this year have started. Flowers generally open and close from 3:30

Losers—

The best way to locate an article or recover through a Lost and Found in The Herald-Post Columns. All advertisements are listed free with our service. Please call Miss 6600 for full information.

finders—